SYNOPSIS

The Brothers Grimm hit the stage with an epic fairytale about wishes, family and the choices we make.

The Brothers Grimm "go Broadway" as Sondheim and Lapine offer up a cockeyed fairy tale in Into The Woods JR., an adaptation of one of Sondheim's most popular works designed especially for young performers.

All of your favorite characters—Cinderella, Little Red Ridinghood, Jack (and his beanstalk), and the Witch—meet and interact in this whimsical original story. The musical centers on a baker and his wife who wish to have a child; Cinderella, who wishes to attend the king's festival; and Jack, who wishes his cow would give milk. When the baker and his wife learn that they cannot have a child because of a witch's curse, the two set off on a journey to break the curse and wind up changed forever.

With unforgettable roles, little dancing, and no chorus, Into The Woods JR. showcases a medium-sized ensemble of talented singers and actors. The sophisticated score has been adapted to make it easier - though still challenging - for young performers. Into The Woods JR. is a funny and engaging way to get young people to think about the stories with which they've grown up and the ethical issues raised therein.

END NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to Raider Theatre's Production of Into The Woods, Jr. We are so thrilled you are joining us for this "giant" show. Community is by far my favorite part of theatre. Each show, cast, and crew somehow always begins to feel like family. By being here you are now a part of our community and our family.

As you look around you in the gymnasium, you will see familiar faces of family and friends, as well as the faces of some you only know in passing or have yet to meet. The theater is a unique space where people from all different walks of life come together in one location and share in one magical journey together. Into the Woods itself embodies this same principle. In this beautiful show you will witness a whirlwind of characters thrown into a shared setting with no absolutes. It is said that great theatre holds a mirror to society. Just as tonight by sitting in your seat you have immediately become part of the story line of those around you, these characters you will see on stage are mixed into a scenario, blurring lines of their previously isolated stories and instead creating a community that accomplishes the impossible.

Come along and join us as we go Into the Woods.

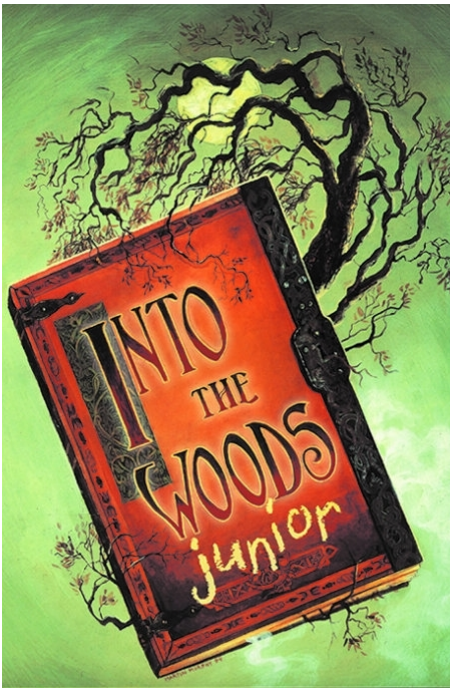

"We cannot act in isolation, nor should we want to for we can accomplish individually only a fraction of the things we can accomplish communally. Appreciate what you have, realize what you want, accept what you can't have, but discover what you are capable of. It is only when we start accepting each other's faults and acknowledging each other's strengths, then we can join together to combat the giants that face us all." –Thomas Uhm, Into the Woods
